Gleichen Board of Trade Re-Organized

The meeting called for last Wednesday night to re-organize the Gleichen Board of Trade was well-attended by the business men of the town, all of whom were quite enthusiastic and ready to assist in forming an organization to look after the many and varied interests of this town and district.

After several had expressed their views of the great need of a live board of trade it was resolved to organize at once and George Matthews was elected president, L. Webster vice-president and F. L. Mallory secretary. More discussion followed regarding organization and a committee was selected to draft by-laws in order that all business might be conducted under proper decorum, which are to be submitted at a meeting to be held tomorrow night—Thursday.

Before adjourning each man present gave his promise not only to be present tomorrow night, but to ask at least one other person to come, and state who he had invited.

Every man who has the interest of the town and district at heart is requested to be present and will be if they possess any enterprise.

Union Church Notes

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 19, Rev. Thos. Wilson, of Medicine Hat, will give an illustrated lecture on "Thirty years among the Canibals of the South Seas." This lecture is really the thrilling story of the life of the great missionary hero John G. Paton. No greater treat will come to Gleichen this winter. In order that none of the boys and girls need miss this great treat a family ticket has been issued at $1.

The Ladies Circle meets this week at the home of Mrs. Hyndman on Thursday afternoon at 2.30. The ladies are busily preparing for their sale of work on Dec. 6th.

The W. M. S. will meet at Mr. T. Henderson's home on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Pioneer Passes Away

George Bailey, an employe of the C. P. R. for 35 years, who was the engineer on the first C. P. R. locomotive to handle a train into the west, died suddenly last Thursday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. Shepherd, Winnipeg. Besides Mrs. Shepherd, he is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Joe F. Price, of Calgary; Mrs. A. C. Corbett, of Strathmore, and a son, Harold Bailey, of Calgary.

Mr. Bailey was born in New Brunswick, 37 years ago, and worked for the C. P. R. syndicate before the company was formed. He came west with the steel and was the first locomotive engineer in Alberta. For many years he had the run between Calgary and Medicine Hat and made some record time on this division. For some time his headquarters were at Gleichen, and later at Medicine Hat. Later he came to Calgary, and had resided there for 25 years prior to his death. Though pensioned by the company in 1915, he lived an active life, one of his hobbies being knitting socks for the soldiers overseas. He had a machine and turned out more than 2,000 pairs of socks for the boys in France.

Many Gleichen old-timers knew Mr. Bailey well and tell some good stories of the early days when he made Gleichen his headquarters. Those were the days when Gleichen was the C. P. R. divisional point. The round-house was located here and Calgary was a way station. There are many stories of how Calgary swiped the divisional headquarters from Gleichen in those early days when the deceased lived here. One old-timer says printers' ink was responsible for Calgary becoming the city that Gleichen should have been.

The Last Urgent Appeal to Buy Victory Bonds

the storms, cold weather and frightful roads, in fact have done more than their share, and yet it is impossible to reach every person. Do your part and Gleichen will have a flag and some crowns.

This, Wednesday, morning Secretary Mallory stated $43,800 of Victor Bonds had been sold in the Gleichen district according to the reports that had reached his office up to that hour, and he has good prospects of selling another $5,000 worth before to-night.

In order to reach Gleichen's objective of $85,000 he asked The Call to urge upon every person that possibly can to call at his office and he would be most happy to accommodate them in any way possible.

He is quite hopeful of at least reaching the objective and would very much like to see it passed with a good margin.

A Last Chance to Correct Honor Roll

In accordance with the announcement made on the front page of the Call last week. The list of names as prepared for the Memorial Tablets are published in full in this issue. These lists have been open for almost a year. An enormous amount of work has been done to bring them to their present form. From the very beginning of our enterprise the Call has stood loyally by the task not only in giving large space but also by personal efforts of the untiring brand. The editor of our local paper has placed your committee under heavy obligations, which we most heartily acknowledge.

Every known avenue by which information might be obtained has been fully investigated. Therefore, no good purpose can be served by keeping these lists open longer. The names as they appear below represent our final effort to make the list complete and accurate. They must be sent forward to the bronze people right away, consequently your committee has decided to close this part of the work on Thursday, Nov. 20th. All corrections or changes must reach the Call office on or before the above date. Should any name be spelled incorrectly or appear in a wrong list with respect to enlistment, or be omitted altogether; we all will keenly regret such error or omission.

Therefore your committee makes this final appeal earnestly and urgently: Go carefully over these columns and report any inaccuracy NOW.

R. N. MATHESON, Secretary.

Citizens Band Concert and Dance Nov. 21

The Citizens Band is issuing real nifty programs for their concert to be given preceding their dance on Nov. 21. Judging from the items appearing on this program the concert is to be above anything heretofore attempted in Gleichen, and no doubt the Opera House will be filled to overflowing that night.

It will be remembered that the celebration of the signing of the armistice was cause for the formation of our band, and those who hear the melodies on the 21st will be agreeably surprised to learn the progress the members have made in less than a year's time.

Now the boys require uniforms to put the finishing touch on the very best advertising medium that Gleichen possesses and it is up to our citizens to turn out en masse and give the boys the encouragement their untiring efforts deserve.

COMING EVENTS

Nov. 12—J. W. D. Woodward's auction sale.

"VALUE WITH SERVICE"

Canada may be able to export 118,000,000 bushels of wheat in 1919-20. This is the encouraging prospect based upon figures from official sources.

Canada requires for home consumption purposes approximately 40,000,000 bushels of wheat and for seeding purposes about 35,000,000 according to authorities on this subject. The Government's estimate that the Dominion's yield will run about 129,000,000 bushels makes it appear possible for Canada to export about 113,000,000 bushels in 1919-20 or about 10,000,000 bushels more than last year, and keep a few million bushels for carry-over stock on August 1st, 1920.

Of course, Canada's export trade depends largely upon the success of the Victory Loan. Sir Thomas White, ex-Finance Minister for the Dominion drew attention to the importance of this fact when he said that, in addition to other credits, $170,000,000 had been loaned to Great Britain in connection with the single commodity of wheat last year. This would have been impossible if the Victory Loan of 1918 had not been a great success. The circulation of this big sum meant prosperity to vast numbers of Canadians and if good times are to be continued Canadians must lend their profits and their savings with equal enthusiasm for the Victory Loan of this year.

Co-operation In Politics Predicted

The following article is an interesting prediction as to the solution of the political situation, by an independent, but close student of political matters:-

The result of the Ontario elections held recently have aroused Dominion-wide interest. Much conjecture prevails as to the ultimate outcome of the groups of parties elected which will necessitate a re-alignment politically before a stable Government can be formed.

The success of the Farmers' party, whereby they secured the largest group numerically, at once puts that party in a leading position and entails upon its members important responsibilities of government. There should be no valid reason why that party should not call to its aid support from other groups, and organize a Government to carry on the affairs of the Province. There is no great gulf, for instance, between the views of the average Farmer member for a mixed rural and small town constituency, and the Liberal member for a similarly comprised riding. The Provincial Legislature is a magnified county council, and, aside from extreme or faddist members, sufficient unity to carry on a stable progressive Government should not be difficult to secure.

One feature, however, that may tend to prevent getting together on the part of the Liberal and Farmer members was the attitude assumed during the contest by Hartley Dewar, K.C., the Liberal leader. There was no justification for his attacks on the Farmer candidates. They had every right to run. They practically and in principle represented Liberal and democratic viewpoints, and the results at the polls indicated that the people upheld their entrance into the political field. In these circumstances it was folly to divide the Liberal groups and to create division as between them.

Following the Ontario results, and of more particular interest in the West, is the result of the Federal by-election in Assiniboia constituency, where Hon. W. R. Motherwell was overwhelmingly defeated by O. R. Gould, the Grain Growers' candidate.

These contests should serve as a warning to those sincerely in favor of a policy of reform and fair taxation, low tariff and progressive government, of the lack of wisdom displayed in dividing the forces of those who are united in main principles. In Assiniboia, Mr. Gould has for years been an active supporter of the same principles and policies as those contended for and upheld by Mr. Motherwell. During the past ten years Mr. Gould supported and actively campaigned in behalf of the Provincial Government of Saskatchewan, of which Mr. Motherwell was a member. In 1911, Mr. Gould was an ardent supporter of Reciprocity, of which, also, Mr. Motherwell was a foremost exponent. For these reasons alone Mr. Motherwell's action in opposing him was not justified, but even had Mr. Gould been previously a Conservative, and had changed his views to conform to Liberal sentiments, the defeated candidate would still have been wrong in contesting the seat in view of the strong public sentiment which existed favoring the Grain Growers' policy and political movement.

The strength and showing of the United Farmers' movement in the East came as a surprise to all. In the Prairie Provinces the party is now thoroughly organized, and has had greater experience in political affairs, and bids fair to make every bit as great, if not a greater, showing than in the East. In these circumstances, therefore, what folly it is to divide the forces in the West largely because a very small minority of old-time Liberals will not, for purely partisan reasons, co-operate with the really Liberal Grain Growers' party. There are small groups of these old-time partisans in the East and West, who, largely for personal reasons, and principally because they cannot control and direct the new forces, refuse to co-operate. The rank and file Liberals, farmers or otherwise, should not tolerate this dictation or allow candidates to be foisted upon them because of these few malcontents.

The overwhelming mass of Liberals and Farmers in the West see eye to eye on main principles. Their forces should not be divided. Co-operation and harmony in political action is plain common sense if results are to be achieved. The Prairie Province Provincial Governments and the great majority of the members of the Legislatures realize the facts and heartily approve of united action. They realize that in three-cornered contests the reactionary forces may win out, since division of Liberal support ensures domination by the interests of Privilege.

The platform and aims advocated by the farmers are essentially Liberal. The majority of the better class and intelligent farmers of Canada are Liberal in their views. At present the farmers', or Grain Growers', wing of Liberalism is in the ascendant, and should receive the undivided support of sane Liberals. Since that element of Liberalism is in the majority, they have the right to assume a certain measure of control and leadership. But they are fair and reasonable and desire co-operation and support. There should, therefore, be no division, and the personal views of the few Liberal reactionaries should be disregarded. Adherence to a common-sense course of united action in the selection of well qualified candidates would ensure triumph for progressive principles at the next Federal general election.

Civilians Buying Aeroplanes

In the last three months more than 500 persons in the United States have either purchased or ordered aeroplanes and were the manufacturers able to deliver planes more than 500 more orders would be booked. Henry Woodhouse, vice-president of the Aerial League of America, says that it is unfortunate for the aeronautic movement that the makers cannot fill their orders. He gives it as his belief that more than 2,000 machines for pleasure could be sold immediately.

The three R's run all through life—at twenty-five you think of romance, at forty-five of the rent, and at sixty-five of your rheumatism.

Sound money is the kind that jingles in a fellow's pocket.

A pleasant medicine for children is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, and there is nothing better for driving worms from the system.

In 1917 the estimated capital invested in Canada in the fisheries amounted to $28,729,000, of which $10,098,000 were invested in boats and vessels. There were 95,304 persons employed in the fishing industry.

On Sale Everywhere.—There may be country merchants who do not keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, though they are few and far between, and these may suggest that some other oil is just as good. There is nothing so good as a liniment or an internal medicine in certain cases. Take no other. The demand for it shows that it is the only popular oil.

Oysters are such nervous creatures that a sudden shock, such as a loud thunderclap, will kill many hundreds of them.

Sharp Practices

New Way of Selling Old Furniture in Paris

Second-hand furniture dealers in Paris have thought of a profitable scheme to sell their stocks to great advantage. A flat is rented in the aristocratic quarter of the city and filled with the finer pieces of furniture. An advertisement is inserted in the dailies that an elderly woman, widowed by the war, will sacrifice her furniture in order to get enough money to return to the country of her birth.

A buyer visits the flat, the woman shows a bookcase, the price is agreed upon, but when the doors are opened a row of old school books is disclosed. The widow bursts into tears and explains that the books belonged to her son who left his studies to take up arms and was killed two months after he had left home. The prospective buyer consoles her, and to help her forget her grief pays her double the price asked.

International Hay And Grain Exhibit

Saskatchewan Farmers to Try for Honors at the Chicago Show

Visitors to the International Hay and Grain Exhibition to be held at Chicago in connection with the International Stock Show, November 29 to December 6, will have an opportunity of seeing some of the fine grain and other crops that are produced in Saskatchewan. The farmers in this province are arranging to send samples of wheat, oats, barley, rye and various grasses and vegetables. At the International Soil Products Exposition at Kansas City, Mo., this year Saskatchewan farmers won the sweepstakes both for wheat and oats, as well as many first and other prizes. They feel confident that they will be able to repeat these triumphs at Chicago next month.

GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next is wet and cold, and unless the mother is on her guard the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mother's best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will quickly relieve it. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers, or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Building Activity Continues

Number of Buildings Being Erected Keeping the Trade Busy

Building activity continues very brisk in the cities of Western Canada. Scarcely a day passes without the announcement of some new permits being granted. These are mostly for residences, warehouses and office buildings. Although there are no very large undertakings, the number of small buildings being erected is keeping the trade busy. In Regina permits were granted in one day for the erection of a building for a bank and another for a warehouse. The estimated cost of these two buildings is about $90,000. In Winnipeg on the same day permits aggregating the same value were issued. As already mentioned, these enterprises are not very large, but the regularity with which similar work has been undertaken throughout the year has tended to keep the trade active.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 16

WITNESSES OF CHRIST'S GLORY

While it is true that in this lesson the disciples are witnesses of Christ's glory, the full truth is that the manifestation of Christ in glory was to give to the discouraged disciples a foregleam of the Messianic Kingdom. The hopes of the disciples were crushed when Christ announced his death on the cross. They were unable to see how victory could issue from death.

Jesus took with him Peter, James and John, and went into the mountain to pray. His chief aim in retirement was to get the disciples apart into a state of receptivity, so that he might show them the method of the Kingdom. Before going to the mountain he declared that there were some standing in his presence who would not taste of death till they should see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom (Luke 9:27; Matt. 16:28). That their drooping spirits might be revived and their confidence restored, he is transfigured before them. Two men from the upper world are sent to converse with him about his approaching death in Jerusalem (v. 31)—the very thing about which the disciples refused to talk. Then, too, God's own voice was heard in words of approval of Christ's course, directing them to hear the Master. Surely they cannot doubt his ability now to carry into execution his kingdom plans. The purpose, then, of the transfiguration is to give the disciples a foregleam of the coming Kingdom, to enable them to see the Kingdom in the embryo. That this is true is not only shown by the context and circumstances, but by the inspired interpretation of one who was with him and knew all that happened. Peter said, "For we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye-witnesses of his majesty, for he received of God the Father, honor and glory when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory. This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; and this voice we ourselves heard come out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts (2 Peter 1:16-19 R.V.). To those who believe in the inspiration of the Bible these words are final. Let us therefore note the outstanding features of the Kingdom as displayed in the transfiguration.

I. Jesus Christ the Glorified King on Mount Zion (v. 29). The glorified King on this Mount was intended to symbolize the Messianic Kingdom when Christ returns to the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem (Zech. 14:4-17). This is still in the future, and will be literally fulfilled. II. The Glorified Saints With Christ (vv. 30, 31). 1. Moses, who was once denied an entrance into Palestine, appears now in glory, representing the redeemed of the Lord who will pass through death into the Kingdom. Many thousands of the redeemed have fallen asleep and at the coming of the Lord shall be awakened to pass into the Kingdom. 2. Elijah, now glorified, represents the redeemed who shall pass into the Kingdom through translation. Many shall be living upon the earth when the Lord shall come, and shall without dying be changed and thus pass into the Kingdom (1 Cor. 15:50-53; 1 Thess. 4:14-18).

3. They talk of the very thing which the disciples refused to believe, namely, the death of Christ. III. Israel, in the Flesh, in Connection With the Kingdom, Represented by Peter, James and John (v. 28). Israel shall be called from their hiding place among all nations of the earth and shall be gathered to Jesus Christ the King, as the central people in the Kingdom (Ez. 37:21-27).

1. Peter proposes to build three tabernacles (v. 33). The Feast of Tabernacles looked forward to the glorious reign of Christ. Peter caught a glimpse of the significance of the transfiguration. His proposition showed that he thought of the Feast of Tabernacles, and therefore of the Millennium. 2. The divine voice (v. 35). At this time God himself uttered his words, assuring them that this one in glory was his son Jesus Christ.

IV. The Multitude at the Foot of the Mountain (vv. 37-43). Mildred: I'll think I'll have my beauty nap now. Maud: Well, take a good long sleep, dear.

Bombers Lost On Way To Egypt

Seven Handley Page Machines Are Disabled on New Air Route

In the British House of Commons Right Hon. J. B. E. Seely, under secretary of state for air, declared, regarding the recent allegations that there had been a serious number of fatalities on the new air route to Egypt, that in the spring and early summer there had been an urgent demand from Egypt for airplanes of large size and endurance to cope with the critical situation there.

Owing to this urgency machines had been sent by air instead of by sea. Fifty-one Handley-Page airplanes were sent, of which 26 arrived safely. Seven were at various points on the route disabled, and fifteen had been given up as wrecked. One machine had crashed down badly and four lives were lost. There were three other bad accidents involving four fatal and three non-fatal injuries. At the request of the chief of the air staff, a special outside commission has been appointed to enquire into the matter.

The minister emphasized the fact that the choosing of this route had nothing to do with civil aviation, and again urged that at the time the situation in Egypt had been critical.

"There's a Reason"

Drastic Regulations To Conserve Fuel

Chicago.—New restrictions on the use of soft coal are announced. In some localities orders were more drastic than during the war, but the general situation showed little change.

While production in West Virginia and Colorado were reported increased, there was no noticeable change in the ranks of the 425,000 striking miners.

Sixty-six trains were annulled by the Chicago and Northwestern and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroads.

Indiana's public service commission took the most drastic action in the domestic fields. It decreed lightless streets, discontinuance of electric signs, coal gas for heating and other advisable restrictions of service by public utilities, with less than a two weeks' supply of coal.

With calls for assistance from communities suffering from a coal shortage growing more numerous, the railroad administration turned loose every available car to meet the appeals made for fuel.

Orders went to regional directors of the nation's railroads from Director-General Hines, to eliminate train service where absolutely necessary in the public interest, but it was officially announced that no general curtailment of service was contemplated.

Russian Government Must Change

Allies Will Continue Economic Pressure Till Democratic Government Is Formed

London.—The present measures of economic pressure on Russia will continue until a democratic government is established in Russia which can be recognized by the allies, according to a statement made in the House of Commons by Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs Harmsworth.

Germans Defeated at Libau

Troops Were Supported by Light and Heavy Artillery and Armored Train

Copenhagen.—German troops, presumably belonging to Col. Avaloff-Bernhardt's forces, supported by heavy and light artillery and an armored train, attacked Libau, but were driven off by Lettish troops, who were supported by British artillery, according to a dispatch received by the Lettish press bureau.

In the afternoon a German airplane dropped proclamations on the city. After a prolonged bombardment by the enemy artillery, a new violent offensive was launched in the evening. It was repulsed by the Lettish. The enemy suffered heavily.

Wounded British Sailors

London.—Wounded British blue-jackets aboard the British hospital ship Princess Margaret have arrived at Copenhagen from Riga, the Politiken reports. They are from the British cruiser Dragon, which was hit by a German shell, killing nine and wounding four men.

U.S. Thanksgiving Day

Washington.—President Wilson has set aside Thursday, November 27, as Thanksgiving Day, in a proclamation, which said the country looked forward "with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifice of the nations will find recompense in a world at peace."

Labor Decides on Hours of Work

Washington.—After nearly five hours of constant fighting, the international labor conference adopted the 48-hour week convention of the organizing committee as a "basis for discussion." But as to exactly what that means the delegates are not agreed. Does adoption of the motion confine discussion to the application of the 48-hour week, or will amendments be admitted for a maximum eight-hour day and the 48-hour week? That is the question all sides are asking.

The vote came on a motion presented by Mr. Barnes, British government delegate, that "the draft convention prepared by the organizing committee be adopted by the conference as the basis for discussion,"

Restoration of Ruined France

Plenty of Work for Every Idle Man in Europe During the Next Eight Years

Berlin.—Work for all the unemployed in Germany for the next eight years will be provided in restoring the ruined mines of Northern France, says Vorwaerts. This opinion is based upon the report of the German mining commission sent to France recently to ascertain the extent of the damage and which has just made public its findings.

"The task," says the newspaper, "is so great that it is sufficient to furnish work for every idle man in Europe and for everyone else engaged in superfluous labor."

"The reports show the fallacy of the theory that emigration of ten million to fifteen million persons from Germany is an economic necessity."

Amend Temperance Act

Saskatchewan Minister Informs Grain Growers That Act Will Be Changed

Saskatoon.—Criticism levelled at the government with respect to the alleged laxity in the operation of the Saskatchewan Temperance Act drew forth a pledge from Hon. George Langley, minister of municipal affairs, that the government would introduce legislation to enforce or amend the Act at the coming session of the provincial legislature, at the concluding meeting of Districts 6 and 16 of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association.

Riots at Sale of Army Goods

Ten Thousand People Storm U. S. Armory; One Woman Dead

Buffalo, N.Y.—One woman is dead, a score were injured, and a score of others fainted as the result of a riot when a crowd of ten thousand stormed the doors of the Sixty-fifth Regiment armory here. The crowd had gathered for the opening of a sale of United States army goods.

The dead woman is Mrs. Emma Baumeister, 65 years of age, who fainted in the rush and died in an ambulance on its way to a hospital. The injured were jammed up against the rough stone surface of the armory and many were badly cut.

Operations on Coast of Alhucemas

Madrid.—Operations by land and sea for the subjugation of the rebels on the coast of Alhucemas, Spanish Morocco, are being planned by the government. The captain-general of Morocco arrived in Madrid to confer with officials over the contemplated attack.

180 Gallons of Liquor Seized

Winnipeg.—Fifteen boxes containing 180 gallons of liquor, valued at $2,800, consigned to Brown Brothers, Winnipeg, were seized at the Union station. Officials said the seizure was in line with the campaign launched a month ago against the "bootleggers' trust."

Ham Prices Drop

Quebec.—A sudden slump of eight cents in the price of cured and uncured ham agreeably surprised Quebec housewives. This sudden decline is due to the order from the government. Bacon also has suffered a decline of about 6 to 8 cents per pound.

Judgment Reserved On Pork Prices

Decision of Board of Commerce on Packers' Protest Will Be Announced Shortly

Ottawa.—The decision of the Board of Commerce as to whether the price prevailing on March 10 for pork products will apply at the present time or not will be made in writing shortly. After hearing representations from the packers, who are seeking to have the board rescind its order fixing prices at the March level, Commissioners Robson, O'Connor and Murdoch reserved judgment. Commissioner Murdoch stated to J. S. McLean, representing the Harris Abattoir company, his firm conviction that the packers and not the farmers fixed the price of livestock. This contention Mr. McLean disputed.

Imperia's to Pass Through Canada

Veterans of Winnipeg Are Planning Reception for Them

Winnipeg.—In a day or two, three thousand British soldiers will be passing through the West on their way home from Siberia. They will arrive at the coast on the Montague. As this is the largest party to come across Canada, Winnipeg returned soldiers and their auxiliaries are going to meet them with some cheer as a mark of appreciation of the worth of the imperial army to the Empire.

Fuel is Held Up

Coal Shipments From U.S. to Be Allowed Firms on Priority List

Toronto.—Although coal consigned to Canada has been held up at the border, H. A. Harrington, Ontario fuel administrator, had been advised that shipments will be permitted to come forward for industries on the priority list, which are in immediate need.

Mr. Harrington has received the following message from Washington in this connection:

"The United States Railroad administration has seized all coal on wheels, which has been sidetracked pending distribution under priority schedule. The director of purchases of the United States railroad administration will have charge of the distribution. It is essential that you get absolute proof that the preferred industries are in immediate need of coal upon receipt of which information the administration will take up the advisability of immediate release to preferred industries, according to priority list."

Sentenced to Death

Winnipeg.—Fred Strycki, of St. Arthur, charged with the murder of his employer, John Kohut, by poisoning, last February, was found guilty by a jury at the assize court here and sentenced by Judge Galt to be hanged at the provincial jail on January 29, 1920.

Premier Supports Viscountess Astor

Plymouth.—Lady Astor has received the personal endorsement of Premier Lloyd George in her candidacy for a seat in the House of Commons from the Plymouth district. The Premier, it was announced, has sent her a letter of encouragement and a promise of his hearty support.

French Defeat Turks

London.—Turkish forces have been defeated by French troops in Angora (in Asiatic Turkey, 200 miles east of Constantinople), according to a Constantinople dispatch. The Turks delivered a heavy attack, but were repulsed, after several hours' fighting. The French hospital train also was reported to have been attacked by troops under Mastapha Kemal.

50 Schooners for Dominion Govt.

Victoria.—It is reported here that the Dominion Government plans to place contracts for fifty wooden schooners with British Columbia shipyards. According to the report, 25 of the ships will be constructed at this port and the other half will be turned out by yards on the mainland.

Peace Treaty Effective November 28

Paris.—The treaty of Versailles and the peace settlement with Germany will become effective, it is asserted in well informed circles, on November 28.

The signature of the protocol and the exchange of ratifications between Germany and such allies powers as have then ratified the treaty will take place on that date, it is reported.

Amendment on the G. T. P. Bill

Limit Will Be Placed on Amount the Arbitrators Will Be Allowed to Fix

Ottawa.—The amendment by Senator Ross to the Grand Trunk railway purchase bill providing for postponement of consideration until next session, was defeated by a vote of 39 to 35.

Second reading was then carried on the same division, reversed.

Eight senators on the government side voted with the opposition for the amendment. They were Senators Nicholls, Ross, Euler, Montplaisier, Gordon, McLennan, Foster and White (Montreal).

Senator Todd on the opposition side voted with the government. The bill will go into committee at the next sitting of the senate.

Ottawa.—That the government has decided to accept an amendment putting a limit on the amount the arbitrators will be allowed to fix, and the value of Grand Trunk stock, was an interesting announcement made in the senate by Sir James Loughheed, replying to a question by Senator E. D. Smith.

The figure beyond which the arbitrators will not be permitted to go had not been decided on, but it will be inserted in the bill when it reaches committee stage, Sir James said.

Several speeches against the measure were made in the upper house, and one in favor of it. Those opposing the bill and supporting Senator Ross' amendment to defer consideration until next session were Senators McLennan, White, Casgrain, Power, Beique and Roche, while support for the bill came from Senator Smith.

Senator Beique, in opposing the purchase, said that before the construction of the trans-continent Sir Wilfrid Laurier had brought, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, head of the Grand Trunk, and Sir William Mackenzie together, and suggested that the Grand Trunk in the east and the Canadian Northern in the west should be amalgamated for the purpose of trans-continent development. Sir Charles was not disposed to make the arrangement with Mackenzie and Mann, and broke off negotiations rather abruptly, leaving the Canadian Northern magnates rather indignant.

Senator Beique said he had been present at the meeting in his capacity as a member of parliament, and therefore felt free to mention the matter at this time.

The Grand Trunk Pacific and Transcontinental plan was then stopped.

Want Better Service

Mail Between Canada and Great Britain Unsatisfactory

London.—Irregularities and delays in mail service between Canada and Great Britain are causing much criticism and many complaints at present. It is felt that a little study by the governments concerned could bring about a much better organization, with the result of letters taking less than two or three weeks from Eastern Canada to reach London. At present mail is being sent by all ships sailing, with the exception of freight boats. It is impossible to judge which mail is quicker. Frequently letters reach their destination several days after others that had been mailed two or three days later, owing to the slowness of some ships. It is also suggested that publication of the list of sailings in Canadian papers, as is done in England, showing when letters should go via New York, would assist.

The growth of the business demands that the matter should receive instant attention as an efficient and dependable mail service means much to Canadians endeavoring to find a footing in British markets.

The Salvation of France

Intensified Production to Be Achieved By Co-operation

Paris.—The general federation of labor announced the organization of its economic council of labor to "save the country from the ruin which has threatened it." The country's salvation, according to a formal statement, "lies in organization looking to intensified production" to be attained through the co-operation of those interested, who are workers, and technical men, who should be co-ordinated by professional men and the functionaries of co-operative societies, who represent the consumers.

Saskatchewan Expects Many Settlers

Many Americans are preparing to move into Saskatchewan next spring. A representative of a land company in Regina states that he effected sales aggregating nearly two million dollars, representing 43,000 acres of land.

Metal Workers Of Perlin Strike

Minister of Economy Refuses to Intervene in View of Strike Order Being Issued

Berlin.—The metal workers proclaimed a general strike. The minister of economy had intended to offer mediation between the men and the employers, but he has announced that he will not intervene in view of the order to strike.

The strike is nearly general, although three thousand workers of the Siemens-Holke plant returned to their jobs. The strike is said to have been called in violation of rules in the metal workers' union, which require a two-thirds majority of the workers on a vote to decree a general strike.

Says Car Situation is Bad

Prof. W. J. Elliott Also Denounces Conditions at Calgary Stockyards

Calgary.—Describing the car situation in the province as "awful," Professor W. J. Elliott, of the U.G.G., dealt strongly with the situation at the U.F.A. secretaries convention. He also denounced the conditions at the stockyard here, stating that the yards were entirely too inadequate to handle the present business.

Discussion of the business and condition of the U.G.G. also occupied some time. Further criticism of the condition of the organization was heard, and it was stated that the financial condition of the company was none too good, and that were the company to close down now it would show a loss of a quarter of a million. Officials of the organization claimed, however, that this did not represent the true condition of the company. The opinion was strongly expressed during the session that the company should trade on the basis of a wholesale concern.

It was stated that the entire wheat crop of Alberta was about five million bushels, and officials said that the company could handle every bushel that did not go back into the ground or was fed to stock.

No Coal For Foreign Ships

Order Is Issued By U.S. Railroad Administration Committee to Conserve Fuel

Washington.—Instituting the first general curtailment in coal transportation as a conservative measure, the railroad administration central coal committee ordered discontinued the bunkering of foreign owned vessels in American ports.

United States owned ships and vessels flying the American flag will continue to receive fuel supplies as usual for the time being, it was said, all other vessels would be compelled to wait the end of the bituminous miners' strike.

New York.—There are 210 ships in the port of New York affected by the order of the railroad administration central coal committee regarding discontinuance of foreign tonnage bunkering. Many of these, however, are British vessels, which, it is believed, will be able to proceed to Halifax for coal.

Objects to Prohibition

New Jersey Governor-Elect Declares That People Voted Against Measure

Jersey City.—Governor-elect Edward I. Edwards has announced that he would use all lawful methods to prevent prohibition in New Jersey. For its enforcement by the federal government, I shall not be responsible, he said. "I construe my election as an indication of the feelings of the people of this state concerning national prohibition. They are unqualifiedly opposed to it. Holding their mandate, I shall use all the lawful methods to preserve inviolate the sovereignty of the people."

Distress on Lower St. Lawrence

Quebec.—Reports of distress have been received here from points in the lower St. Lawrence, on the north and south shores, especially on the Gaspé coast and at Esquimaux point. Merchants here have large shipments of supplies which they cannot send out, as there are no vessels available. An application has been made to the government to have the steamer Montcalm make several trips to the lower St. Lawrence to deliver supplies to the people before the close of navigation.

Prince Drives Own Train

Montreal.—At Flavell, twenty miles west of Trenton, the Prince of Wales boarded the locomotive of the Canadian Pacific railway train and personally drove the train into Trenton.

Over A Thousand Huns To Be Tried

Revolution in Printing

New Inventions May Do Away With Type Composition

New York.—Perfection of a process which will take the place of printing and engraving was predicted as a direct result of labor difficulties in the publishing business here, by Roger W. Allen, former president of the New York business publishers' association, who predicted that new machinery would soon do away with all type composition.

Inventors have been busy on new devices and combining the use of old ones, said Mr. Allen. The magazines will not look to the uninitiated particularly different from issues formerly produced, he added.

Gale Sweeps Superior

Vessel Is Severely Damaged By Heavy Storm

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—A stiff northeast gale sweeping Lake Superior severely battered the steamer North Star, which came down the river, covered with snow and ice. The North Star, a Great Lakes Transit Company vessel, is the first ship this season to appear here with marks of such a storm. Her starboard rail was stove in and she had lost almost her entire deckload of shingles.

No other reports of vessels caught in the storm have been received here.

Million Bushels of Potatoes Frozen

Winnipeg.—According to official figures made public by the department of agriculture, about one million bushels of potatoes have been frozen in the ground, meaning a loss of about a million dollars. This is a material reduction from the figures given out a few days ago, but the estimated yield this year was only five million bushels, or two million less than last year.

Last Dependents to Leave England

London.—Eight ships between them will carry 2,000 Canadian dependents this month, which will about complete this class of traveller. The first two parties to be conducted to Canada will be domestic servant emigrants, each numbering about a hundred. They will leave during the month.

Crime Conditions in Chicago

Chicago.—In addressing the Chicago association of commerce, Edwin W. Sims, president of the Chicago crime commission and former United States district attorney, declared that Chicago, with its population of 5,000,000, has more murders in a year than England.

Dublin.—Ernest Blythe, member of the Sinn Fein parliament, who was arrested during a raid on Sinn Fein headquarters September 12, and later was sentenced to one year in prison, was released from prison after having been for five days on a hunger strike. Blythe was taken to a hospital.

British-Chilian Treaty

Washington.—Great Britain and Chili have ratified the arbitration treaty, negotiated some months ago, the state department has announced. The treaty is to continue in force for five years, and automatically extends itself until a year after notice of intended termination by either government.

Government Rejects Offer of Miners

Plan Merging Agencies

Dominion Employment Bureau May Supplant All Others

Vancouver, B.C.—The World says: "A move is on foot to place all governmental employment agencies throughout Canada under the supervision of the department of civil re-establishment. This would mean that the Dominion employment bureau, now operated here would be operated from the S.C.R. offices under the direction of the unit commander in British Columbia, and to complete the scheme as it has been mooted the provincial authorities would be asked to come into line and merge their employment services with the soldiers' organization."

Many a man seems dead to the world when he is buried in thought.

First Meeting of Peace League

Date Has Not Yet Been Fixed For Gathering

Paris.—The first meeting of the council of the League of Nations will be held in Paris, the supreme council has decided. It did not, however, fix a date for the gathering. It was agreed that the council of the world body should consider at this meeting only matters which must be passed upon immediately after the formal ratification of the German peace treaty.

The supreme council discussed its own uncompleted work preparatory to deciding upon exactly what questions must be passed upon before the peace conference ends.

Kaiser is Well Punished

King George Gives Missionary His Views of ex-Emperor of Germany

London.—King George gave his view of the former German emperor in the course of an audience with a missionary from Armenia, Archibald Ford.

When the missionary told the story of his captivity of four years, saying that the troubles had all been instigated by the Germans, the King replied: "Well, they are finished now. The Kaiser has had to run away from his own country. He is well punished for all he did."

Rounding Up the Bolsheviks

London.—A headquarters bulletin from Gen. Denikine, received here by wireless, claims that Cossack troops captured 35,000 Bolsheviks between October 17 and 27. The troops of Gen. Denikine's volunteer army in the meantime took 20,000 more. The communists assert that entire divisions of Bolshevik troops are being put out of action daily.

Victory Loan Popular in U.S.

Toronto.—United States citizens have a keen appreciation of the value of Victory Bonds. Subscriptions from the other side of the border up to a few days ago totalled $27,281,550, two millions more than was collected last year in the entire campaign.

Enemy Delegates' Passage Arranged

Washington.—The German and Austrian delegates to the International Labor conference here having failed to obtain passage to America, the supreme council at Paris has agreed to endeavor to arrange bookings, according to a cablegram received by the conference.

CANADA'S FUTURE
DEPENDS ON LOANSteady Employment and Prosperity
Hangs on Victory Loan.

Canada's future prosperity depends to a great extent upon the success of the Victory Loan. No country can exist upon trade within its own boundaries. Canada counts on the trade with Great Britain and other allied countries to keep the food of good times in the country.

The surplus products of the farm and the factory find their way across the seas. The revenue of the farmer and the manufacturer is dependent on this trade relationship being sustained. The employment of many hands depends on the orders that come to the firm. The pay envelope only comes with steady employment.

Great Britain and overseas countries are still desirous of continuing trade relations, but, overwhelmed with war expenses, they must be given credits for the time being. The farmer and the manufacturer must be paid for their products and manufactured articles in cash. Therefore, Canada must finance the proposition to keep the tide of commerce coming this way. But in order to have the money on hand to do this great thing, Canada must borrow from her people.

The Victory Loan offers bonds to subscribers paying 5 1/2 per cent. interest. The guarantee behind the bonds makes them an absolutely safe investment. Victory Bonds are accepted as collateral at any bank, and can easily be turned into money at a profit. It is then to the interests of every Canadian to subscribe for all the Victory Bonds he can, for it is profitable, it is patriotic, and it is necessary for the continued prosperity of the country.

CANADA NEEDS MONEY

War Expenditures Still to Be Met
From Proceeds of Victory Loan.

The war is over and won; but Canada's main expenditures for war will not be complete until well on into 1920. The $610,000,000 raised last year has all been spent, $400,000,000 having been largely devoted to soldiers—to maintaining them, bringing them home, providing the necessary medical services, training them. Most of the balance of the loan was lent to Great Britain to enable her to buy our surplus products. And money is still necessary—for soldiers, for providing markets, for our surplus products, for the needs of reconstruction. And that is why another Victory Loan is necessary. Canada still needs money, and needs it badly.

A Good Investment.

Speculation is one thing. Investment is another. The majority of citizens want an investment, not a speculation. And they want a safe investment. Victory Bonds fill that requirement as does no other investment. Because behind every bond there is the national wealth of Canada—a wealth so great that it staggers the imagination.

Canadian Bank Clearings.

That Canada is well able to support the Victory Loan is clearly shown by the Canadian bank clearings for the current year. They indicate that the year's total will exceed $15,000,000,000 compared with $12,774,000,000 in 1918. And the year's total clearings should be three times those of 1909.

Must Subscribe More.

Dividing the people of Canada into three classes—the comparatively poor, the moderately wealthy, and the very wealthy—it would seem that if contributions to the Victory Loans constitute service to the nation, the moderately wealthy class is hardly doing its share. Of the money subscribed to the Victory Loan 1918, two hundred and seventy-one million dollars were in bonds of $5,000 and under, ninety-four millions in bonds of between $5,000 and $25,000, and three hundred and one millions in bonds of $25,000 and over.

Be true to yourself. Buy Victory Bonds.

You did it before. You can do it again. Buy Victory Bonds.

Canada pledged her last man and her last dollar. Redeem that pledge in Victory Bonds.

If the fighting were still raging, you wouldn't hesitate to buy Victory Bonds.

To make the Victory Loan a success is a national obligation. It may be that you are the deciding factor.

If you are concerned about the future welfare of Canada, buy a Victory Bond and make it a sure thing.

Don't forget the future of your children. Lay a good foundation with a Victory Bond.

Would you lend a soldier $50 if you knew it would save his life? Buy Victory Bonds and keep the military hospitals up.

If you appreciate a good investment you will buy a Victory Bond.

You decide no one but yourself when you say you can't afford a Victory Bond.

Prepare to pay for Victory.

The New Motor Car

The Greatest Improvement
In Riding Comfort Since the Introduction of Pneumatic Tires

HERE is a brand new type of car, built in Canada by Canadians, for Canadians. It solves the problem which has baffled automotive engineers—how to combine riding comfort with light weight and economy.

Our new Three-Point Cantilever Springs make this possible.

These are the first springs of their kind and they are made of chrome vanadium steel. They are exclusive with Overland.

Because of these springs, Overland 4 combines the riding qualities of large, heavy, expensive, long wheelbase cars, together with the advantages and economy of small, light cars.

With 100-inch wheelbase, Overland 4 has the luxurious riding ease of 130-inch Springbase.

The exclusive, Three-Point Cantilever Springs cushion the car so that it rides well on all roads; they reduce choppy rebounds and side swaying, protect the car from road shocks and prolong its life, minimize twisting or racking of frame and body, enable the car to hold the road better.

The car and passengers ride smoothly as though floating, free from road shocks.

But this new riding comfort, possible only with these Three-Point Cantilever Springs, is but one of the advantages of Overland 4.

Its light weight makes possible great economy of gasoline and tires.

High quality materials insure durability. All vital parts of the front axle and steering gear and all highly stressed driving gears and shafts are made of alloy steel.

The equipment list of Overland 4 is like that of expensive cars: Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting System, Electric Horn—Specially Resilient Upholstery Springs—Demountable Rims—Three Speed Transmission—Slanting Rain Vision Windshield—Tillotson Carburetor, and many other high quality conveniences.

In every respect Overland 4 is a quality car. The body is all steel, all enamel, the brightest, hardest, most lasting finish.

Overland 4 has been tested for two years and more than 250,000 miles over the Rocky Mountains, prairies, through deep mud and scorching deserts—through quick, sharp climatic changes. As a result of these tests we were able to judge the car's performance under every condition and to perfect it before offering it to the public.

There is no previous car of any size or price to adequately compare with the character of service Overland 4 introduces.

The farther you ride in it the more you will appreciate it. Come in and get a Booklet. The demand for Overland 4 will be greater than the supply for some time. Overland 4 Touring, $1195; Roadster, $1195; Coupe, $1845; Sedan, $1995. Prices f. o. b. Toronto, War Tax included.

Has Fears of The Awful Farmer

The Calgary Herald is all worked up just now over the U. P. A. classification program. Why, bless you Herald, it is only about a week ago since you told us the legislature was composed of more than sixty per cent farmers, and it seems to us for several years past the complaint has been widespread among the provincial government of "class legislation for the farmers." These farmers are becoming awful bug-bears to some folks.

How is a editorial the Herald got off its chest last Friday.
The Cochrane bye-election and the resulting discussion in the convention of secretaries of the U. P. A. in discussing very clearly that whatever diverse opinions there may be in the rank, the bye-election was fought on the question of class organization, and the district convention, as President
H. W. Wood pointed out to the secretaries, ended the view in the subject. Until the U. P. A. conventions regulate their previous action, there cannot be any question whatsoever but that the U. P. A. political organization stands strictly for the administration of some but none else farmers to its ranks.

This being the case, the attention of Alberta legislators needs to be called to the entirely new political situation which has arisen in the province. At the present time there are 35 legislative seats in Alberta exclusive of the two soldiers' representatives at large. Of these 35 seats, three are in Edmonton, three in Calgary, one in Medicine Hat and one in Lethbridge. The Calgary seats, especially, are, with the exception of very small areas of rural territory, confined almost wholly to the city. On the census basis of 56,000 population, and that is too small, this would mean one seat for every 18,666 old population.
On the other hand, in ridings like Chapman, Athabasca, Beaver River, Cochrane and others, with a very small population, in some cases less than one-tenth of the Calgary population, these rural constituencies also have one seat in the legislature.

It is borne out by statistics that more than one-half of the people in the province live in the cities, towns and villages of the province, yet on the basis of representation in the legislature, the rural districts have more than double that of the cities.

So long as political action was confined to the people at large, without distinction to class lines, this made no particular difference. That is to say, in any political party which controlled the government, there were farmers, business men, townpeople and all classes, though the farmers have been the preponderant element.

But if we are going to have political parties such as President Wood advocates, based on an exclusive or occupational group basis, then it is only fair and reasonable that these groups should have no stronger voice in the government than that to which their numbers entitle them. If, as President Wood has indicated, the rest of the population must organize to get back of what we will be to be to them to organize if the other groups have two votes to their one in the legislature?

Local and District News

The Japs are evidently taking little stock in League of Nations talk, for they have decided during the next eight years to spend $250,000,000 on a naval program.

John Glinbeck says: "We can't have one man talking this and another that. We must agree." What a beautiful world this would be. If John could only have his way in this.

Down in poor old Ontario both of the old political parties got the wind completely knocked out of them by the farmers. Whatever will the Grits and Tories do now when they meet for acres?

The Gleichen Citizens Band has arranged to give another of their popular dances on Nov. 31. New uniforms is the idea. By all means let us help the boys come out in style.

Economy of Ford Service

WEAR is unavoidable even in the best car, but certain parts wear out more quickly than others. There is no end of scraping your car because the piston rings have seen their day, because the platinum points of the vibrators are worn out. Probably the rest of the car is as good as new.

Medical men agree that the human body is renewed, cell by cell, every seven years. You can do the same with your Ford Car and prolong its life at minimum cost by replacing worn parts from time to time.

Ford service has been the means of doubling the lives of hundreds of Ford Cars, and cutting down the cost of motoring. The fact that a Ford Touring Car, which costs $280, f. o. b.
Ford, Ont., can be purchased part by part separately for $217 is ample proof of the economy of driving a Ford Car.

It will pay you to have your car overhauled during the winter months. 700 Canadian Dealers and over 2,000 Service Garages supply genuine Ford parts and prompt repair service.

When buying, choose a Ford, and take advantage of the economy of Ford service.

BUY A'N IRRIGATED FARM FROM THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

BECAUSE:

Irrigation makes the farmer independent of rainfall, and in sure good crops, not occasionally, but every year.

Irrigation makes possible the successful culture of alfalfa, the king of fodders, which insures good returns in dairying and mixed farming.

Irrigation means intensive farming and close settlement with all the advantages of a densely populated agricultural community.

Irrigation in the Canadian Pacific Railway Irrigation Block is no longer an experiment, the years that it has been tried having absolutely demonstrated its success wherever it has been applied.

This is the most liberal offer of irrigated farm land on record. For full particulars apply to

Make Your Dreams Come True

Fond parents dream of a bright future for their children.

They dream of the literary and musical education they are going to give their daughter, and of the high position she will take in her sphere of womanhood.

They dream of the education they are going to give their son and vision him some day as a clergyman, a famous lawyer, an eminent physician, a prominent financier, or a captain of industry.

But to make these dreams come true —or even partly true—requires foresight, planning and money.

To provide the money what plan so wise as to buy Victory Bonds for each child?

Thousands of parents bought Victory Bonds for their children in 1917 and 1918.

Surely you will be among the thousands of loving parents who will buy Victory Bonds for their children—this year?

Victory Bonds may be bought on instalments at such easy terms that every parent who so wishes may buy

THE COW PUNCHER

—BY— ROBERT J. C. STEAD

Copyrighted, Canada, 1918, By The Mussion Book Co., Ltd., Toronto. Printed By Special Arrangement.

"I heard him cry 'Oh, Daddy, Daddy,' above the screech of the brakes," she continued, in a dry voice.

"Sorrow is a strange thing," she went on, after a pause. "I don't pretend to understand, but it seems to have its place in life. I fancy this would soon be a pretty degenerate world if there were no sorrow in it. I have been told that sometimes fruit trees refuse to bear until they have met with adversity. Then the gardener bores a hole in them, or something like that, and behold, next season they bear. Sounds silly, but they say it's a fact. I guess it's natural law. Well—" she paused again, and when she spoke it was in a lower, more confidential note.

"I shouldn't tell you this, Dave. I shouldn't know it myself. But before that things hadn't been, well, just as good as they might in our home. . . They've been different since."

Miss Flora Boyko Tells How Cuticura Healed Her Pimples

"My face was very itchy at first, and after that it was covered with pimples that disfigured it badly. The pimples were hard and red and they were small, and they were scattered all over my face and were so itchy I had to scratch and I could not sleep."

"These bothered me nearly a year before I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and when I had used five boxes of Cuticura Soap and five boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed."

(Signed) Miss Flora M. Boyko, Gardenton, Man., Dec. 26, 1918.

Having obtained a clear healthy skin by the use of Cuticura, keep it clear by using the Soap for all toilet purposes, assisted by touches of Ointment as needed. Do not fail to include the exquisitely scented Cuticura Talcum in your toilet preparations. Splendid after bathing.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer."

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

The shock of her words brought him upright. To him it seemed that Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were the ideal father and mother. It was impossible to associate them with a home where things "hadn't been just as good as they might." But her half confession left no room for remark.

"Mother told me," she went on, after a long silence, and without looking at him. "A few years ago, 'if someone had only told me, when I was your age,' she said."

"Why do you tell me this?" he suddenly demanded.

"Did you ever feel that you just had to tell someone?"

It was his turn to pause. "Yes," he confessed at length.

"Then tell me."

So he led her down through the tragedy of his youth and the lonely rudderless course of his boyhood. She followed sympathetically to the day when Dr. Hardy and his daughter Irene became guests at the Elden ranch, and then her interest manifested something deeper than sympathy. But he had become engrossed in his narrative. . . . The September day had drawn to a close, and the dusk was thick about them, ere he reached the end. But before the end he stopped. Should he tell her all? Why not? She had opened her life to him. So he told her of that last evening with Irene, and the compact under the trees and the moon. Her hand had fallen into his as they talked, but here he felt it slowly withdrawn. But he was fired with the flame of love which had sprung up in the breath of his reminiscence. . . . And Edith was his friend and his chum.

"And you have been true?" she said, but her voice was distant and strained.

"Yes."

"And you are waiting for her?"

"Yes, I am waiting. . . . It must be so."

"It is cold," she said. "Let us go home."

CHAPTER TEN.

Whatever the effect of this conversation had been upon Edith, she concealed it carefully, and Dave counted it one of the fortunate events of his life. It had sealed to him a new friendship, a confidence to support him in days of stress. He had been working under the spur of his passion for Irene, but now this was to be supplemented by the friendship of Edith. That it was more than friendship on her part did not occur to him at all, but he knew she was interested in him, and he was doubly determined that he would justify her interest and confidence. He threw himself into the columns of The Call with greater vigor than ever.

But just at this time another incident occurred which was to turn the flood of his life into strange channels. Dave had been promoted to the distinction of a private office—a little six-by-six "box stall," as the sports editor described it—but none the less a distinction shared only with the managing editor and Bert Morrison, compiler of the woman's page. Her name was Roberta, but she was masculine to the tips, and everybody called her Bert. The remainder of the staff occupied a big, dingy room, with walls pasted with specimen headings, comic cartoons, and racy pictures, and floor carpeted deeply with exchanges. Dave, however, had established some sort of order in his den, and had installed at his own cost a spring lock to prevent depredations upon his paste pot or sudden raids upon his select file of time copy.

Into this sanctuary one afternoon in October came Conward. It was such an afternoon as to set every office worker at war with the gods; the glories of the foothill October

"I Wonder Would It Help Me?"

THIS question has been answered by many thousands of women who have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Sleeplessness, irritability, nervousness, gloomy forebodings of the future, depression and discouragement—these are some of the symptoms which tell of exhausted nerves.

In order to avoid nervous prostration or some form of paralysis it is well to get the building up process established at once by use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

are known only in the foothill country, and Dave, married though he was to his work, felt the call of the sunshine and the open spaces. This was a time for fallen leaves and brown grass and splashes of color everywhere—nature's autumn colors, bright, glorious, unsubdued. Only Dave knew how his blood leaped to that suggestion. But the world must go on.

Conward's habitual cigarette hung from its accustomed short tooth, and his round, florid face seemed puffier than usual. His aversion to any exercise more vigorous than offered by a billiard cue was beginning to reflect itself in a premature roundness of figure. But his soft, sedulous voice had not lost the note of friendly confidence which had attracted Dave, perhaps against his better judgment, on the night of their first meeting.

"Lo, Dave," he said. "Alone?"

"Almost," said Dave, without looking up from his typewriter. Then, turning, he kicked the door shut with his heel and said, "Shoot."

"This strenuous life is spoiling your good manners, Dave, my boy," said Conward, lazily exhaling a thin cloud of smoke. "If work made a man rich you'd die a millionaire. But it isn't work that makes men rich. Ever think of that?"

"If a man does not become rich by work, he has no right to become rich at all," Dave retorted.

"What do you mean by that word 'right,' Dave? Define it."

"Haven't time. We go to press at four."

"That's the trouble with fellows like you," Conward continued. "You haven't time. You stick too close to your jobs. You never see the better chances lying all around. Now suppose you let them go to press without you today, and you listen to me for a while."

Dave was about to throw him out when a gust of yearning for the open spaces swept over him again. It was true enough. He was giving his whole life to his paper. Promotion was slow, and there was no prospect of a really big position at any time. He remembered Mr. Duncan's remarks about newspaper training being the best preparation for something else. With a sudden decision he closed his desk. "Shoot," he said, again, but this time with less impatience.

"That's better," said Conward. "Have you ever thought of the future of this town?"

"Well, I can't say that I have. I've been busy with its present."

"That's what I supposed. You've been too busy with the details of your little job to give attention to bigger things. Now, let me pass you a few pieces of information—things you must know, but you have never put them together before. What are the natural elements which make a country or city a desirable place to live?"

I'll tell you. Climate, transportation, good water, variety of landscape, opportunity of independence. Given these conditions, everything else can be added. Now, our climate—of course it is misunderstood in the South and East, but misunderstanding doesn't ruffle it. You and I know what it is. This is a white man's climate. Follow our latitude into Europe if you want to find the seats of power and success. London and Berlin are north of us; Paris very little south."

"Where did you get this stuff?" Dave interjected. "Sounds like the prelude of an address before a boomers' club."

Plotters Were Foiled

Pretentious Plot of Bolsheviks Ends In a Fizzle

Bolshevik plans for the seizure of Whitehall and of Westminster were laid early during the present year, it has just been disclosed. A number of extremists, most of whom are still engaged in Bolshevik propaganda in England, and in the United States, met and discussed the plans for this pretentious undertaking, which they hoped would be executed by a so-called sailors' and soldiers' union.

One of the plotters since has been sent to prison, where he is still serving a sentence for having made revolutionary speeches. The plot came to naught because of lack of support and the watchfulness of the authorities.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests, which merely make the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw, and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief, and soon the entire corn, root and all lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder, then, that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Fraternization Of Anglo-Americans

British Are Anxious to Cultivate the Friendship of United States

"Maintenance of the future peace, happiness and prosperity of mankind rests undoubtedly in the hands of the 160,000,000 people who speak the language of Shakespeare and Lincoln," declared Frederic William Wile, of London, at the Congress Hotel, Chicago, recently, speaking at the annual banquet of the National Implement and Vehicle Association.

Mr. Wile, Indianian, ex-Chicago newspaperman, and for the past nineteen years a resident of Europe, where he is attached to Lord Northcliffe's great journalistic organization, made an earnest plea for Anglo-American fraternity. He advocated it as an ideal to be striven for in "the enlightened self-interest both of the United States and of Britain." Though the speaker confessed himself a warm advocate of the League of Nations, he expressed the view that a league of the English-speaking nations could of itself guarantee "safety" of democracy. "Between us," said Mr. Wile, "we can dominate, without domineering, God's whole footstool."

Mr. Wile said, in part:

"I have not returned to my country to pretend that the Anglo-American horizon is cloudless. It is not. I have not come home to proclaim that Americans are universally beloved in Great Britain. They are not. What I do say is this—that the vast bulk of the British people, the same leaders of the classes, and particularly the authorized spokesmen of the masses, are warm and avowed apostles of friendship with the United States. They are eagerly anxious that our late comradeship-in-arms shall not prove to have been a mere ephemeral bond. They are conscious of the might, the unselfish and the indispensable aid that America rendered to Liberty's cause. They recognize, from the bottom of grateful hearts, that we proved ourselves a friend in need and a friend indeed."

"The Britishers are not blind to the practical realities of the Anglo-American situation. They know that it bristles with difficulty, but they do not believe that any of them are necessarily insurmountable. They know that in the months and years that lie ahead of us John Bull and Uncle Sam are destined to be formidable rivals for the trade of the world. They know that the financial supremacy of the globe has passed from London to New York. They know that Britain has become a debtor nation. They know that the trident of mercantile marine supremacy is slowly but surely passing to the grip of this new and mighty Neptune of the western seas. They know how fabulously the emergencies of war have magnified the wealth and industrial power of this amazing nation."

"But the Britishers believe that along with competition with America there is ample opportunity for co-operation, too. Their view is that a heaven-sent opportunity is now presented for team-work between the English-speaking nations in every field of economic, spiritual and political activity."

"You manufacturers of America will do well, in my judgment, to prepare for one important new development in Great Britain. Unless I am much mistaken, the days of free trade in England are numbered. I look at no distant date for the introduction of a protective tariff in the United Kingdom. It may not at once assume the skyscraper heights to which protective-tariff America has so long been accustomed within its own domains, but a tariff of some kind is, in my judgment, a certainty and at no far-off time. John Bull has hitherto maintained industrial eminence throughout the world because of cheap production. The days of cheap production in England are numbered, too. The British industrial fabric, shaken to its foundations by the war, requires radical reconstruction. I expect reconstruction, among other forms, to assume the shape of a protective-tariff England."

Mr. Wile devoted a large part of his address to summarizing Britain's achievements in the war. He said that only an infinitesimal portion of the American people was aware of their magnitude. "How many of us know that the British race lost a million dead, suffered 3,000,000 casualties and mobilized more than 10,000,000 and sailors?" the speaker asked. "And then he told why 'our sister race' had rendered these sacrifices:

"Britain, it is true, remains a monarchy and still tolerates a king. But in Britain, though the king reigns, the people rule. Britain rushed to arms for precisely the same reason that we did; namely, because like us, she

Old Age Deferred

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

Business men who must speed up the works and make business boom during these days—after the war—must recognize the necessity of keeping fit. When mind is befogged, when you have dull headaches or feel logy, when not "up to snuff," keep the bowels free with a mild laxative. In the morning take a tepid sponge bath (cold water may be used if it does not chill), follow with a brisk rub down; a sufficient "setting up" exercise in good air until you are in a warm glow. Have you tried it lately?

Don't let the poisons accumulate in the intestines either, but try a dose of castor oil the first thing on arising, or a pleasant laxative occasionally, such as one made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, rolled into a tiny sugar-coated pill, and sold in every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Then a cup of hot water before breakfast, and you'll feel better than a king! If you continue in life thus, you can pass a Life Insurance examination at sixty.

If you wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if you want to increase your chances for a long life, you should drink plenty of soft (rain) or distilled water daily between meals. Then procure at the drug store Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid). This "Anuric" drives the uric acid out and relieves backache and rheumatism, as well as kidney trouble. Anuric dissolves uric acid as hot tea dissolves sugar.

Murder Charges Against Hun Officers

Firm of Jewelers in Paris Lays Charge in Paris Courts Under Versailles Treaty

Charges of murder and burglary, based on articles 227 and 230 of the Versailles peace treaty were lodged against German officers in the Paris courthouse by a firm of jewelers in the Rue de La Paix.

This firm had a branch house at Ostend when the Germans occupied the town in October, 1914. The manager of the store and his wife were shot and three safes blown up and their contents taken. The names of the officers responsible are said to be Ace and Ignace.

The under-secretary of state for military justice has been requested to apply for the extradition of the officers.

Next to America, Japan Showed the Greatest Increase

Lloyd's shipping report for 1918-19 states that at the end of June, 1919, a record amount of shipbuilding was going on throughout the world, namely, 4,800,000 tons, of which two million were building in the United Kingdom. During the year to June 30 there were 3,800,000 gross tons registered at Lloyd's, of which the United States built 1,900,000 tons, the United Kingdom 1,300,000 tons, Japan 360,000, and Canada 200,000.

Next to America, Japan showed the greatest increase in shipbuilding in war time.

The Need For Thrift

Vast Sums Being Spent for Goods That Purchasers Could Do Without

Saving is not always looked upon as a saving grace. If it were, there would not be over five per cent. of the inhabitants of the United States and probably an equally large percentage of Canadians who are dependent upon public charity. During the past five years practically all commodity prices have risen steadily, yet vast sums in the aggregate are now being spent for goods that the purchasers could very well do without. The production of luxuries requires the labor of thousands of men and the use of capital and materials that could be turned to better account in producing and distributing necessities.

No right-thinking nation or individual desires to become a pauper, but to avoid such a fate thrift is a prime essential. At no other time in the history of Canada has thriftiness been more imperative. At no other time has prodigality been so much the rule. It may be only a reaction following the enforced frugality of the later war years. It may be due to the surplus currency which war industries brought into being. But in any case, the general result is baneful and tends toward pauperism. If the discount on Canadian currency abroad is to be wiped out and the prices of necessities reduced, national and personal thrift is a precept which must be put into practice. —Farmers' Magazine.

Electric Power For Every Farm House

Manitoba Rural Districts Will Soon Be Served With Electricity

The electric age in Manitoba is becoming an established fact. Operations have commenced for the erection of a line to supply electrical power to Portage La Prairie and immediate points from Winnipeg. It is the beginning of a policy, the ultimate outcome of which will be the supplying of electrical power to every town and to every farmhouse in the province. Construction work is being carried on by two bodies of men, one working from Winnipeg to Portage and the other from the opposite direction. It is aimed to have the line in operation by December 15 of this year. The total cost of this line is estimated at $350,000, and legislation for this expenditure was passed by the provincial government at the last session. A contract has been entered into with the city of Winnipeg for the supply of power during the next ten years, by the end of which time the province will probably have a plant of its own. The erection of the Winnipeg-Portage power line is the initial step in the realization of the dream of engineers who have predicted that electric power throughout the province will be as common as the telephone. Arrangements are being made for the extension of this line beyond Portage and for branches to be made from it. Plans for the erection of power plants in other parts of the province are also under consideration. In some districts the plants will be operated with lignite coal; in others the enormous water powers will be utilized.

The "No-Repair" Airplane

Proof of High Standard of British Engineering Work

One of the accidents of war led to a very convincing proof of the remarkably high standard of British engineering work. A British fighting airplane was delivered by the makers in September, 1917, and immediately put into commission. After a busy period of war service it was forced to land in Holland. The pilot was interned and the airplane was bought by the Dutch government. Since then Dutch officers have flown it continuously, but it has never been repaired or renovated even in the slightest detail. Not even the "dope" on the wings has been renewed. This machine is still in service and is very popular with the Dutch pilots.

GENERAL DEBILITY FOLLOWING INFLUENZA

Strength Can Only Be Regained By Enriching the Blood

Following a widespread epidemic of influenza, general debility is on the increase, and its effects may be noticed in the worn, listless appearance of so many of the men and women you meet. Influenza always leaves behind it impaired vitality and with the modern conditions of life, that use up nerve force so rapidly, general debility becomes one of the most common maladies. The symptoms of debility vary, but weakness is always present. There is poor digestion, languor, weak, aching back, wakefulness at night, often distressing headaches and a feeling of fatigue. These symptoms indicate impure and impoverished blood. It is significant of nearly every attack of influenza that it is followed by anaemia and debility.

For all such run-down conditions, new blood is the most reliable cure. Sufferers should at once begin to make thin blood rich and red with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Under a fair treatment with this medicine, they will realize more and more the health-restoring influence of good, rich blood, and how this new blood brings a feeling of new strength and increased vitality. Proof is given in the case of Mrs. G. Robertson, Winnipeg, Ont., who says: "When the Spanish influenza spread over our town I happened to be one of the first attacked, and the attack was a very severe one, and, worse still, the after-effects of the trouble left me in continuous misery. I had severe pains in my side, felt low-spirited, and with no ambition whatever. My head ached almost continually, my eyes felt heavy, and pimples broke out on my face. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking them for a time I felt like my old self. I am able to do my housework, and feeling well and strong. I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the serious after effects of influenza, as I am sure they will restore all sufferers to good health."

You can get these Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Nothing has done more to open German eyes than the publications that have been made since the armistice. Ludendorff and Von Tirpitz (though the latter's disclosures have been kept as much as possible from the German public), Von Hintze and Helfferich, Bethman-Hollweg and Von Jagow, have let loose upon the old regime a storm of condemnation. And day by day the commission now sitting in Berlin to determine responsibility for the outbreak and misconducting of the war, and for the high crimes and misdemeanors of German diplomacy, have been bringing out sensation after sensation. The cumulative effect cannot fail to be to deepen Germany's shame and humiliation. For that practical purposes, that will do about as much as repentance.—N. Y. Evening Post.

King Albert And The Reporters

Taught Representative of the Government A Lesson

Attention is drawn by the Omaha Bee to a little incident occurring at a New York railway station which it regards as of some importance and significance. King Albert of Belgium was about to depart on his continental tour when certain newspaper reporters sought to speak with him. The Third Assistant Secretary of State, from Washington, refused permission, but the king wasted no time in overruling this functionary, and spent some moments chatting with the newspaper boys.

King Albert, says the Omaha paper, thus taught the representative of the government of what is so often styled the world's greatest democracy a lesson. The newspaper reporter is the most direct connection, the shortest cut, from the king to the people. Albert knows this, for he was once a reporter. The United States Administration seems to have forgotten the fact. While the war was on the newspapers of both the United States and Canada patriotically submitted to a self-established censorship, in addition to which the Government supplied. They dished up daily the information sent out from the various Allied capitals and did what they could to help win the war.

That time is past, and the people want the real news and expect the papers to furnish it. The average reporter knows that headquarters is the place to get information, and goes there. King Albert came to America for his own good and that of his country, and did not try to conceal himself behind any attribute of loyalty. Understrappers and bureaucrats in Canada as well as in the States will do well to imitate the soldier king.—Regina Leader.

Cairo To Jerusalem

Journey From Egypt to Holy Land Greatly Simplified

Whoever has journeyed to Cairo and from there desires to go on to Jerusalem may now buy his ticket in the Cairo railway station and look out of the windows of the train at the scenery of the Plain of Sharon as he makes his trip. The rail connection has been completed by a new line from Ludd to Haifa, passing the ruins of Athlit, where the Templars long ago had their last stronghold in Palestine. The journey from Egypt to the Holy Land is greatly simplified; one need no longer land at Jaffa, nor wonder how much one's plans will be interfered with by uncertain conditions of wind and sea. More than that Jerusalem is a much less dubious place for the tourist to visit, and its points of interest may be much more conveniently inspected than they used to be. Good order is maintained; the city is under British discipline; the chance of "falling among thieves," more or less an accepted risk under the Turkish regime, need hardly be considered. One may visit the Mosque of Omar without the undesired companionship of a Turkish soldier. A good deal of regret has been heard that "Europe would never be the same again" for tourists to look at; but in some respects at least it will be much changed for the better.

Local and District News

Alderman F. K. McKay has gone to Winnipeg on business.

Now is the time to repair your auto. See Bates & Gibson.

Our boys finished their job and its up to us to do our share—buy Victory Bonds.

Peter Kelly's sister arrived from England last week to take charge of his little family.

Wm. Service spent a few days in town the past week visiting relatives and old friends.

Wm. Walsh has disposed of his tire repair plant to Roy Smith, who has moved it to Bassano.

J. W. D. Woodward has postponed his auction sale to Nov. 25. His entire effects will be sold as advertised.

Wm. Strack has closed the dining room of the Gleichen Hotel and is renovating the office, where he will open a grocerteria within the next few days.

The Overland 4 is now the coming car for prairie roads. Bates & Gibson are the local agents and make a specialty of repairing all autos. See page 7.

All is set for the Hockey Club dance on Dec 5th. Mrs. Trainor's orchestra has been engaged and the Club members are determined to make this dance one of the most enjoyable of the season. They also hope to make sufficient money to buy new goal nets, uniforms, etc.

"Go to Church Sunday" proved a decided success for both St. Andrew's and Union churches. The attendance at all the services being record ones, and Cannon Stocken and Rev. Matheson may well feel pleased with the result of their united efforts. The fact is that Gleichen people are from being good at attending church, not that they are greater sinners than found in other communities, but are neglectful and do not know the good they are missing. The services last Sunday were excellent and quite up to our largest cities. The singing was good and the sermons very earnest, thoughtful and well delivered. We will be very much mistaken if many of those who attended these special service are not found at church regularly in the future.

Stromer-Bowl

A quiet wedding took place at the manse on Monday afternoon, Nov. 10th, when Mr. Carl H. Stromer, of Drumheller, was united in marriage to Miss Annie Bowl, of Gleichen. Rev. R. N. Matheson, of the Union church, officiating. The young couple left on the afternoon train for their home, near Drumheller.

N. E. Stuart & Co. CLUNY

Our store is complete and we are in a position to supply you with your requirements in dry goods, shoes and groceries. We intend to run a store that will advertise itself through service, quality and price. To do this we must get acquainted with all the people in the community and have them all get to know our store. As an inducement to get everybody in our store to see what we have and compare our merchandise as to prices and quality with what you have been buying, we are going to give a discount sufficient to justify your coming.

Beginning Saturday, October 25th, until Saturday, November 1st, we will give a 10 per cent discount on all purchases. This is to get acquainted and to get everybody to buying their supplies in Cluny.

Yours truly,

N. E. STUART & CO., Ltd.
